Proposed London Referees Website

Home

- Who we are
- What services we provide
- mandate?

The Referee (I would have this on the home page)

- The role of the referee, the training involved, certificates, commitment, communication skills, social intelligence skills Training Camps- Don Koharski Officiating and Development Referee Camp <https://dkrefcamps.com>
- Parent education (this may need to be its own drop down menu? is this related to parents signing their kids up to be referees or parents of hockey players ? Perhaps this is removed for now? or we just include the OHF/HC posters....)

Membership

- Structure of the member executive committee/what their roles are/situation contact information tree/voting privileges & process, LRG Constitution
- Engagement piece for the current membership
- reminders/announcements
- Join the LRG officiating team
- Our partner Certification/Recertification Clinics and contacts
- Link to our Scheduling Platform (currently: Horizon Webref)
- Skill Building -(check out Alliance Hockey Website and referee's crease documents, lots of great stuff contained within)

Logos Decided on -

Colour - Black, White and Red/Orange (check with client if it is red or orange and ask if there is a specific colour we need)

TO DO:

- Andres -Get script for voiceover done - send to Selena to do the voice over when complete
- Selena will make basic wireframes -send to Sandro - also keep working on getting the front end set up
- Sandro - get one more logo done that is based on the client request we received - also create more detailed wireframes of the site
- Vika - start to work on the video for the presentation - share you script with us when possible
- Elena - merge pull requests from Selena and keep working on the CMS
